

Damian Crilly

Member, The Security Institute MSyl

Member of The Counter Terrorism Advisory Board ASIS International

LCGI Licentiate in Counter Terrorism Protective Security Management. London City and Guilds Institute 2008

GCGI Graduate in Counter Terrorism Protective Security Management. London City and Guilds Institute 2012

UK Government National Counter Terrorism Security Office advisor on Hostile Vehicle Mitigation working group.

M: +44 779 521 221

E: damian@crillyconsulting.co.uk

Damian Crilly is a security professional with over 31 years of public and private sector professional security experience specializing in the field of counter terrorism and activism crime prevention for over 14 years. Working with all business sectors and groups, including extensive experience in the Finance and Energy sectors, Damian advises on all aspects of physical and personnel security issues.

Additionally Damian provides advice to architects and developers in designing out terrorism in new builds throughout the capital. He also has extensive experience in aiding the corporate sector in managing domestic extremism and activist issues as well as being instrumental in developing Major Incident response plans, contingency planning and business continuity for multi - agency response around the Canary Wharf financial sector. Commended three times in his police career for his work in this field.

Capabilities:

- Advise on implementing UK Government Counter Terrorism Strategy (CONTEST) for Government, Finance, Energy, Food, Utilities, Health, Transport sectors.
- Advise on securing the UK's Radiological Sources, Pathogens and Toxins including pre cursor chemicals and Home Made Explosives HME
- Bespoke site security surveys and vulnerability assessments for all business sectors
- Awareness training to business' in the form of: 'Stay Safe Armed Attack' ARGUS (Audio visual CT exercise) and Threat Awareness presentations, Hostile Reconnaissance.
- Supporting the Centre for the Protection of the National Infrastructure (CPNI) in offering security advice to the UK's critical national infrastructure
- Providing security advice on UK designated crowded places
- Risk assessments of vulnerable locations, and provision of protective security recommendations
- Advise on integrated security management and physical security.
- Provision of general advice relating to cyber security and insider threats.
- Provision to all business sectors with bespoke Hostile Vehicle Mitigation surveys to deal with the threat of vehicle borne terrorist attacks

Specific Achievements

- Delivered the South Bank Project, to protect London's Arts and Cultural Centre
- Led complex negotiations with government and local stakeholders to win £1,25M of public money to fund the South bank Project
- Founding member on the Project Griffin Steering Committee
- Worked extensively with the English Cricket Board safety officers group providing specific CT advice to The Oval and Lords Cricket grounds. Resulting in hard physical mitigation solutions
- Provided security advice to the world renowned Twickenham Rugby Football Union stadium
- Provided security advice to assist colleagues dealing with the West Ham United Football Stadium (English Premier League)
- Succeeded in providing full holistic protection against vehicle borne terrorism for London's arts and cultural centre on the South Bank including the world famous London Eye
- Set up first Counter Terrorism Forums to assist business within Canary Wharf and to protect the UK financial centre from terrorism
- In 2001 Set up Direct Action Group with Canary Wharf Management to deal with all domestic extremism issues. (Still running to this day)